Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. WHO CAN SIGN ATOL ACCOUNTANTS' REPORTS?

The CAA introduced the ARA scheme in order to improve the ways in which we report on ATOL holders. So, since 2016, only a designated and registered ARA who works with a registered firm can sign ATOL reports.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

2. WHO APPOINTS AN ARA ACCOUNTANT?

A company can select an ARA accountant who they believe has sound knowledge of and understands the expectations of the CAA. The ATOL accountancy bylaws are in place to protect ATOL companies and their clients.

3. WHAT IS THE CAA'S ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA?

The member of the organisation must be able to highlight that:

- ▶ They've sat and passed a professional exam that covers work approved by the CAA.
- ▶ They have Professional Indemnity Insurance.
- ▶ The primary function of their accountancy firm is to provide accountancy services.
- ▶ They are independent of the ATOL travel company.
- ▶ They follow and stick to the IFAC's code of ethics.
- ▶ They've assigned a contact principal.
- ▶ The selected member will need to undertake CPD and additional training.
